Set Up	The course is designed for students who have previously attended the lecture in Microeconomics I: Demand, Supply and Equilibria but have either not taken or failed the exam. Therefore, the course will prepare students for the exam by refreshing the material but without presenting it in detail, again.

	It is strongly recommended, that those students in the old examination regulation who have not yet attended this foundational lecture, but still see the need to do so, should switch to the new examination regulation (PO 2018).
Allocated Modules	This course can only be chosen by students in the old examination regulation (PO 2015) who do not switch to the new examination regulation (PO 2018).
